

ROW A

Civic Participation

Civic Participation

ROW B

Civic Participation

Civic Participation

ROW C

Our Changing
LandscapesOur Changing
Landscapes

ROW D

Our Changing
LandscapesOur Changing
Landscapes

 History

How can that history inform our civic participation today?

 History

How have Americans come together in groups, made decisions, and affected their communities, the country, and the world?

 Civics

How can I participate?

 Civics

What are the responsibilities and opportunities of citizenship and civic agency in America's constitutional democracy?

 History

How has the land we inhabit—from our local community to states and territories to the American republic—changed over time, and how have we shaped it?

 History

How has our geographic, social, economic, and political landscape changed over time?

 Civics

What principles and values do Americans invoke in our debates about these issues?

 Civics

What different perspectives are there on those changes (see History Thematic Question), and on the benefits and costs of those changes?

ROW A

We The People

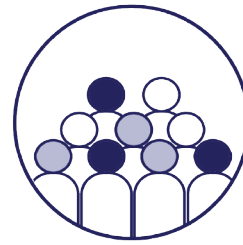

We The People

ROW B

We The People

We The People

ROW C

A New Government
& ConstitutionA New Government
& Constitution

ROW D

A New Government
& ConstitutionA New Government
& Constitution

 History

What does our history reveal about the aspirations and tensions captured by the motto E pluribus unum?

 History

Who are “We the People of the United States” and how has the nation’s population changed over time?

 Civics

What values, virtues, and principles can knit together “We, the People” of the United States of America?

 Civics

Why does constitutional democracy depend on the idea of “the people”?

 History

How did the U.S. government form and how have civic participants changed its shape over time?

 Civics

What is a constitution and what is its purpose?

 Civics

What are rights (natural rights, human rights, civil rights, etc.)?

 Civics

What is power?

ROW A

A New Government
& Constitution

A New Government
& Constitution

ROW B

Institutional & Social
Transformation

Institutional & Social Transformation

ROW C

Institutional & Social
Transformation

Institutional & Social Transformation

ROW D

Institutional & Social
Transformation

Institutional & Social Transformation

 Civics

What is constitutional democracy?

ROW A

 Civics

What is law?

 History

How and why has the United States transformed its basic political, legal, economic, and social arrangements over time?

ROW B

 History

Is the American Revolution ongoing?

 Civics

What is a just society?

ROW C

 History

How do you evaluate when changes are significant enough to count as a refounding?

 Civics

How can the Constitution be changed formally and informally? (and how can your state constitution or other charter be changed?)

ROW D

 Civics

How do laws and social structures change?

ROW A

Institutional & Social Transformation

A People
In The World

ROW B

A People
In The World

A People
In The World

ROW C

A People
In The World

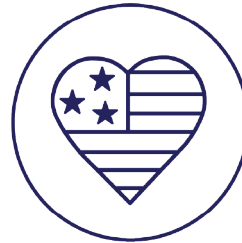

A People
In The World

ROW D

A People
In The World

Contemporary Debates
& Possibilities

 History

What does it mean to be a nation among nations?

 Civics

What political and economic ideas have contributed to these changes?

 History

What is our influence in the world—diplomatic, economic, military, and cultural—and how has the wider world shaped the United States?

 History

How has the United States dealt with different types of external relationships (conflictual and cooperative) across its history?

 Civics

How has United States foreign policy changed across our history?

 Civics

How do American constitutional principles influence the conduct of foreign policy?

 History

How does knowledge of the American past—including of our constitutional forms and principles, as amended—help us to think about important political and economic debates today, including climate change and conservation, mass incarceration, individual rights and liberties, property and taxation, societal health and order, and political polarization?

 Civics

How was the role of the executive branch changed across our history?

ROW A

Contemporary Debates
& Possibilities

Contemporary Debates
& Possibilities

ROW B

Contemporary Debates
& Possibilities

ROW C

ROW D

What values and principles underpin different positions on them? How do people engage with issues they care about?

What are key current events and policy debates in our constitutional democracy?

How can we ensure our sources of information about these questions are accurate and fair? What effects can misinformation have on contemporary debates?